GRADUATE-LED REPLICATION

29 of 38 Care Programs Led by Program Graduates

Focusing efforts on replication driven through graduate-led programs – healing and hope are spreading at exponential rates in previously unreachable communities!

Every year, Exile is training and empowering more program graduates to launch care programs in their communities.

These graduates and their influence are vital to ending cycles of violence and poverty throughout these regions.

DISCIPLES MAKING DISCIPLES

Lives are being transformed & these young leaders are bringing healing to their own communities.

Not only are they passionate, they are successfully replicating the care programs that restored their lives.

With God's help and through these empowered young men and women — good news is spreading and communities are being transformed!
